

WHITEHEAD, SPOONER, COOPER ENDORSED BY THE CONVENTION

Vote Is 113 to 43 on the Resolutions--The Executive Machine Men Fight Hard, But Are Defeated Every Move.

John M. Whitehead, Rock County's candidate for governor was officially endorsed this afternoon by a decisive vote of 113 to 43 with the LaFollette-Whitehead lines closely drawn. It was a telling blow to the executive machine and a decisive victory for the Stalwart republicans.

Senator Spooner was also endorsed as was Representative Cooper.

This afternoon the republicans of Rock county met in convention in the circuit court room of the court house. The convention called for 163 delegates and with the exception of representatives from the towns of Harmony and Johnston, where no caucuses were held, every town, village and city was represented by the full quota of delegates allowed them.

While it was a county convention brought together to elect delegates to the congressional convention to be held tomorrow to re-nominate Congressman H. A. Cooper, still the fight at the caucuses had been made a personal one between the supporters of Senator Whitehead and Governor LaFollette, and the real fight of the afternoon was between the LaFollette leaders and the Whitehead delegates as to the minor elements of the convention.

Machine Men Obstruct Work
True to the policies of the head of the state government and the executive machine the actions of the LaFollette men were all of the obstruction nature and were more an annoyance to the running of the convention than accomplishing any definite results for the convention proper.

Twenty towns, two villages and four cities were represented by delegates. When lined up in the convention hall the real strength of the Whitehead republicans was apparent. One hundred and fifteen delegates had been elected upon the Whitehead proposition and beside the 42 known Executive machine men they controlled the convention.

Against Resolutions
The first act of the machine men was to try and obstruct the passing of any resolutions and by dilatory measures delay the action of the convention. "Gang rule" was what L. A. Gettle tried to characterize the decisions of the chairman, Hon. R. J. Burge, of Beloit, and was sharply brought up by Mr. T. S. Nolan, who said that he did not belong to that branch of the party noted for that practice. It was a warm and spirited debate to one with and became warmer as the afternoon continued.

The dolence of the convention were: The Rock county republican convention was called to order by T. S. Nolan, chairman of the county committee, who read the call for the convention.

On motion of Wilson Lane, Hon. R. J. Burge, of Beloit, was appointed chairman. On motion of T. S. Nolan E. F. Hanson of Beloit was elected secretary.

T. S. Nolan read the list of delegates entitled to seats in the convention. The chair instructed all those holding proxies for missing delegates to present them to the chair.

To Vote For Delegations
On motion of James A. Fathers the delegates present were given the power to cast the vote for the delegation.

The chair stated that the County committee acted as a committee on credentials.

Committee Appointed
The chair appointed as a committee on resolutions: L. H. Parker, Beloit; Wilson Lane, Janesville, and P. Marquart, Milton. L. E. Gettle, of Edgerton, from the First district, objected to Mr. Marquart, and entered into a hot controversy with the chairman. His objections were overruled. The convention was ruled by the second and third districts and there was no let-up in their rule.

Endorse Whitehead
On the report of the committee on resolutions, the following were adopted:

We, the representatives of the Republicans of Rock County, Wisconsin, in convention assembled, do hereby declare ourselves as follows:

With profound regret, we recall the name of our dear chieftain and President, William McKinley, and deplore his untimely death. With unanimous voice, and joined by the people of every civilized country, we revere and cherish his memory, and are deeply thankful for his life-long service and patriotic devotion in behalf of our people. His pure and unswerving character, his far-seeing statesmanship and transcendent ability, will ever be cherished by a grateful people.

We commend the energy, devotion, ability and wisdom of our Chief Executive, Theodore Roosevelt, and pledge to him our unwavering support, as he takes up the great responsibilities of his high office.

We commend the course of our representative in congress, Henry Allen Cooper. We point with pride to his services in the House of Representatives for a period of ten years, and rejoice in the honorable, influential, and useful position which he has attained in that legislative body. We pledge to him our support, and endorse him for re-nomination and reelection to the office which he has so ably filled in the past.

We are proud of the eminence and marked ability of Wisconsin's favorite son, John C. Spooner. By his prominence and leadership, as an orator, lawyer, and statesman, he has brought honor to our state and its people. Not only in Wisconsin, but everywhere throughout the United States, and even beyond the seas, John C. Spooner is known as one of the greatest statesmen and most influential men of our time. Whatever may be the attitude of Senator Spooner as to his continuance in public life, we demand that, upon the expiration of his present term, he be returned to the United States Senate, there to serve us and the people at large in the future, as he has in the past; and we hereby pledge the united efforts of the Republicans of Rock County to bring about this result.

We commend the wise and conservative course of John M. Whitehead in the State Senate, and acknowledge his efficient, patriotic services, and unquestioned devotion to the interests of his constituents and the State. We are proud that Rock County has been asked to provide a candidate for Governor. We recommend Mr. Whitehead for the gubernatorial nomination at the next Republican State Convention, and pledge to him the support of the Republicans of Rock County. We further declare our purpose to stand by our nominee to the end, and hereby tender to him our unqualified confidence and support.

We reiterate our allegiance to the principles of the Republican Party, believing, as we do, that the application of these principles brings commercial prosperity, municipal and civic progress, enlarged opportunities for all classes, higher wages for the laboring man, better prices for the products of the farmer, and a dominating influence in all international relations.

Dated at Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin, May 26, 1902.

L. E. Gettle moved to strike out that part of the resolutions relating to Senator Whitehead and the vote be taken by towns, cities and villages. A vote was taken on the amendment and resulted as follows: In favor of Whitehead, 113. In favor of LaFollette, 43.

Votes For Whitehead
In the vote when Edgerton was called L. E. Gettle forgot himself, and voted for Whitehead, but afterward changed his opinion. This created great excitement and the chair was obliged to call the convention to order.

The resolution was adopted. On motion of L. E. Gettle the committee on credentials was dispensed with.

On motion of L. H. Parker, the chair appointed a committee of three on resolutions. T. S. Nolan moved that all resolutions be submitted to these committees without debate. L. E. Gettle arose to a point of order that this meeting was called to pass on credentials and that the county has no power to bind them; that each district has the right of its own vote.

T. S. Nolan held that they have the right and power to make such resolutions as they see fit and thought the resolutions should be supported. Wilson Lane made a short argument in support of the motion.

L. E. Gettle held if they are called as separate assembly districts they have the right to act. That they cannot apply the gag rule. T. S. Nolan said that he did not belong to that part of the party that was in the habit of applying the gag rule.

Fred Gilman, of Evansville, moved that a committee of five be appointed which was lost.

The original motion was carried.

Gettle Kicks
L. E. Gettle also spoke in objection to the resolution and against applying the gag rule. He made a spread eagle speech in regard to taking their rights away from their delegations. Wilson Lane said, that the county does not stand for gag rule, and the county proposes to send solid delegation to the congressional convention.

J. B. Dow moved that the chair appoint P. M. Green, Jas. A. Fathers, E. T. Hanson to nominate delegates to the congressional convention. B. F. Gilman of Evansville objected to the resolution on the ground that the call gave them the right to separate into districts to elect delegates.

Charles Stark, spoke in favor of allowing each assembly district to choose its own delegates.

Fred Gilman, of Evansville, asked if this is an established custom for the convention as a whole to choose the delegates.

Thomas S. Nolan said that each convention makes its own rules. All the assembly districts could do is to go out and choose delegates and the convention has the right to ratify or object.

The resolution was adopted after a call for the ayes and noes by a vote of 113 for, and 45 against.

P. M. Green, of Milton, presented a report of the committee on delegates to the congressional convention which was adopted by a vote of 119 to 29.

L. E. Gettle read a report of a Convention of the First assembly district and of their delegates and a resolution. T. S. Nolan arose to a point of order and the chair ruled that there was nothing before the house.

A motion to adjourn was in order.

THUNDER MOUNTAIN IS A VOLCANO

Settlers Near Eagle River Hastening from the Vicinity of the Eruption.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 26.—Reports reached Milwaukee today from Eagle River, Wis., Florence, Wis., Appleton, Wis., and Iron Mountain, Mich., of the startling behavior of Thunder Mountain, the highest point of land in northern Wisconsin, which is reported to be belching forth smoke and rumbling at an alarming rate. It is known that at Green Bay, sixty miles away, a hot bowlder fell on a street corner, and was still red hot when morning came. The light of the mountain, it is said can be seen for miles. The reports come from localities seventy miles apart.

Settlers Frightened
According to the reports, the few homesteaders are hurrying to the settlements in alarm. The strange actions of the mountain have caused a panic in the two surrounding counties.

Thunder Mountain is more of a plateau than a hill, and in the center of the mountain is a great peat bog and swamp. The mountain has been solid mass of rock, with vegetation at the top, and with a cedar swamp surrounding it. State geological authorities have declared it to be of volcanic origin.

According to tonight's reports, over 100 settlers have reached Eagle River. Fiery sunsets, and a succession of severe thunder storms near the mountain have added to the general consternation.

Thomas Lamphier of Beloit, Commits Suicide while Drugged from Drink—Is Found Dying.

Beloit, Wis., May 26.—(Special)—Thomas J. Lamphier, proprietor of Lamphier's park, three miles from the city, committed suicide last night by cutting his throat while under the influence of liquor. He was found in a dying condition by his wife at 1 o'clock and died a few minutes afterwards.

Aside from drink no cause can be assigned to the deed as he was doing a good business and his property was very valuable. Mr. Lamphier was forty-five years old and leaves a wife and one child. His estate is thought to be worth some $20,000.

Used A Jack-Knife.
Early last evening a neighbor saw Lamphier in the yard with a big jack-knife in his hands and argued with him to go to bed. This he did going into one of the guest rooms and locking the door. About ten o'clock his wife heard a noise as of some one falling and on investigating discovered her husband sitting in the corner of the room with a washbowl between his knees partially filled with blood. The old jack-knife was lying on the floor.

A physician was called and when he arrived he made an investigation and found that his entire head had literally been severed from ear to ear. Lamphier died a few minutes later. Coroner Booth of Beloit was called and held an inquest this morning.

WISCONSIN DROPS IN PENNANT RACE

Minnesota Team Takes Two Games from Wisconsin, with Ease.

Chicago, Illinois, May 26.—(Special).—The past week in Western base ball annals has produced three notable events, viz.: Wisconsin lost the lead in the pennant race by going down to defeat before her old rival, Minneapolis. Northwestern trounced the Maroons, and Illinois earned the honor of being the first Western team to defeat one of the "big three" Eastern colleges. This the team from Champaign did at Princeton on Saturday, when the Tigers fell by 3 to 1.

But four championship games were played during the week, Chicago & Northwestern opening the program with a game at Marshall field, which the Methodists won. It was the first victory of the men from Evanston in their own class this year, and was accomplished through the miserable playing of Stagg's men rather than any extraordinary effort on the part of their rivals. Equal batting was more than offset by Northwestern's perfect fielding against six errors by the Maroons.

Illinois Victories
Illinois put another notch in its war club the following day by trimming Michigan in the first game of the eastern trip by a score of 7 to 6. It was a narrow escape for the team from Champaign, and Jake Stahl's bludgeon had to do yeoman service in the ninth to break a tie which Neil Snow had previously accomplished with a similar swipe.

oor Buckeyes
On Friday Chicago took sweet revenge on Oberlin in that peaceful Ohio town for two disastrous defeats administered by the Buckeyes last year. The Ohioans were put up against the lengthy Ellsworth and barely saved a shut-out, while they used two pitchers in trying to head off the Maroons. Chicago slugged the ball all over the lot and won, 8 to 1.

Gophers Win
Saturday was an eventful day, full of surprises for the wise ones. With Richardson in the box, Wisconsin lost to Minnesota at Madison. The Indian Rogers, noted more for his football ability than for his baseball playing, humbled the doughty Badgers by the stealthiness of his curves, and won 7 to 5. Minnesota now holds the honor of being the only conference college which has not yet lost a game to one of the combine.

Up at Ann Arbor "Stuffy" Place, for the umpteenth time, started Chicago on the road to success by nearly losing the ball in the ninth inning. With the score 4 to 3 against them, Place drove in the tying run with a three-base smash, and before the Maroons got up they had gathered five runs and had won the game hands down. Place also stole five bases, a figure that has been reached but once before this season, when Ashmore of Illinois turned the trick.

Down Old Nassau

The good things predicted for the Illinois team on its Eastern trip have already begun to be realized. All was in mourning in Tigertown Saturday night, for what was expected to prove a practice game for Princeton turned out to be an Illinois victory, and but for Shortstop Meirer's home run would have been a shut-out. Captain Lundgren was at his best, and seven scattered hits were all the Tigers could get. The Illinois team played errorless ball and showed Princeton some of the finer points of the game as they are understood in the young west. There is more trouble brewing for the Eastern contingent before Illinois leaves that section.

PLATFORM PLAN IS ATTACKED

Ninth Letter of Senator Whitehead on the Stevens Bill.

LOSS OF INTEREST

Should Issues Be Made by Committees and Not Left to Voters.

AN ABLE ARGUMENT

Senator Whitehead presents to the readers of the Gazette his ninth letter to the voters of the county. He takes for his text that portion of the bill that refers to the platform plan. In able and well-chosen language the senator shows the appalling defects of this measure and the results that would ultimately follow should it be passed and forced upon the people of the state.

It would not only solidify the machine power of the party in power passing the bill but would take party issues from the hands of the voters and give them to committees, thus making the voter less interested in actual doings of the party and taking away from him his vote.

Janesville, Wis., May 26, 1902.

To the Gazette:—The committee system proposed in the Substitute Bill was practically the same as that contained in the Stevens Bill, which I have already examined at length, except that the cumulative voting system was changed by doubling the number of votes allowed to committeemen at meeting of the central committee, that is, for the city, county or assembly, each member might cast "one vote for every fifty votes or major fraction thereof cast by his party in his precinct at the last general election." Instead of twenty-five votes as provided in the original bill and for the state "one vote for every two hundred and fifty ballots or major fraction thereof cast by his party in his county." at the last preceding Presidential election. Instead of one hundred ballots, as provided in the original bill.

The substitute Bill departed from the Stevens bill in the following section:

"Section 21. The platform of each political party shall be formulated in such a manner as the central committee of each party shall determine."

Instead of leaving the making of the platform in the hands of the voters of the party, where it belonged, the right to say how the platform should "be formulated" was vested in the state central committee of a party. The Stevens Bill, it will be remembered, required the party candidates assembled in convention, officered by the chairman and secretary of the state central committee, to make the platform. Both provisions were, in my judgment, at variance with any proper theory of a primary election, out of harmony with all the captivating phrases that we heard in the legislature in favor of the primary election principle, and of all the usages of all the bodies with which we were acquainted—churches, lodges, labor organizations, associations of business men, educators. One would like to ask how long interest could be sustained among the members of any other organization, if all of its functional activities, or its policies, or of its plans for its growth and usefulness, were left to committees or officers elected at long intervals, and if no general meetings were held from time to time, in which the individual members would be brought together and given an opportunity to look into the affairs of the body and to impart to it the vitality which it would constantly be required to possess in order to retain its members. These bills relegated to the hands, first, of the candidate, and then, of committeemen, all sense of party responsibility to the public and all provisions for and control of party activities. Nowhere is there a line or word in either of the bills looking to any method of calling the committee to account for any report of committee or officers, excepting only the routine duties as election officers, already commented upon, and the utterance of the platform. The very important party function of declaring its own principles, its platform upon which it appeared before the public, its propositions relating to public policy, which it proposed to carry out if placed in power, was placed in both bills, beyond the reach of the voter. The state central committee had been evolved by successive eliminations. In the way I have shown in a former communication, and the method of its selecting was a striking illustration of party authority, a process pertaining to the caucus and convention system, which presented, to the eyes of the friends and supporters of the Stevens Bill, an insuperable objection to the preservation of that system. This provision of the Substitute Bill relating to the platform, illustrates one of the many difficulties which certainly confronted the framers of the bill, and it would clearly seem to have been adopted arbitrarily as offering an answer to the question so often asked: If the party meetings be discontinued, how can the party platform be promulgated?

I can see no justification, upon any ground advanced in behalf of either of the bills, for legislation of this character.

GIVES A STIRRING MEMORIAL TALK

REV. CHURCH ADDRESSES OLD SOLDIERS IN METHODIST CHURCH.

Believes in the Power of the Flag—

Expansion—Glory of the Veterans, and Closes by Declaring the Flag Should Be Nailed Above the Cross of Christ.

In honor of the soldier dead of America, Memorial Sunday was observed in many of the churches yesterday and from many of the pulpits there were heard glowing tributes to the nation's heroes, living and dead, and stirring messages of patriotism.

The special Memorial services were held at the First M. E. church and were of a most impressive nature. W. H. Sargent Post, No. 20, Grand Army of the Republic and W. H. Sargent Woman's Relief Corps No. 21, attended as organizations and occupied the center of the church. Both societies were largely represented and the presence of the battle-scarred veterans and the loyal woman was an inspiration which made the service one fraught with stirring interest, rare sentiment and deep feeling.

Church Decorated
The church was tastefully decorated with large flags, draped above the portrait of one of America's martyred presidents—the late William McKinley. Potted plants and flowers adorned the altar. The organizations, who were honored guests at the service, also carried the stars and stripes—the emblem whose significance is most sacred to the men who marched to battle beneath its fluttering folds.

Rev. James Church, pastor of the church, was in the pulpit and the devotional service, which preceded the sermon was inspiring and beautiful. The chorus choir, with Miss Elva Crawford at the organ, sang an exquisite anthem and led the congregational singing. Two people were received into the full membership of the church and one was admitted on probation.

An Eloquent Sermon
In his able sermon on "The Right Side of a Soldier's Life," Rev. Church stood openly for the policy of expansion and the restriction of foreign immigration. He took as his text the first verse of the fifth chapter of Galatians, "Stand fast therefore in the faith wherewith Christ hath made us free." He spoke eloquently and forcefully, was listened to with the closest attention and was frequently applauded in spite of the fact that this custom is unusual in churches.

Rev. Church held that while the words of Paul, the father of the Galatian church, were spoken to a peculiar people who were vacillating and easily turned aside, the kindly timely exhortation applies to every church which exalts the name of Christ and to every nation. It applies in a specific way to Americans because they know at what a terrible price their liberty has been bought.

For The Glory of the Flag
Among the thoughts which must bring sunshine into the soldier's life is the knowledge that he helped in the work of making this people liberty-loving, independent, free. The flag is typical of liberty and he had something to do with its refection as the emblem of the union. It is the most sacred, beautiful flag in the universe. No flag means as much to any people as this flag means to this people. It was not made by Betsey Ross, though her fingers fashioned it. The flag had its inception in the hearts of those people who looked eagerly to an unknown country, over a century before, because they longed for liberty.

For this flag our fore fathers suffered and died and our fathers left shop and field and went out to battle in order to retain the union as it was and is. With its life at stake they fought and bled in the southland. Some of these men fell and lie in unknown graves. Some of them are in this church and a braver, finer class of men never has been known.

In later years men again went out in the name of freedom and today in Porto Rico and the Philippines the stars and stripes wave above a freed people. Having secured for them this liberty and honored our flag, let us keep it waving there.

Should Cultivate Patriotism
Americans do not cultivate patriotism as they might. The true citizen is patriotic not only on Memorial day and the Fourth of July, but on every day of the year in summer's heat or in winter's cold. Patriotism should be cultivated because of the mixed character of the nation's population. We welcome any man who comes here to make this country his home, to become its loyal citizen, to be true to its flag and true to its laws. If he can't be true to them and recognize our citizenship we do not want him. We do not want the scum of the earth and the sooner those who do intend to become true citizens go back to the countries from which they came the better it will be for us. The old New England Yankee is dead, in a large measure, and in his place stands a man in whose veins flows the blood of all peoples. It is a type of manhood, the grandest in all nations.

Rejoice in The Union
This is a united people and the union brings gladness to the soldier's heart. It is a family of states. There was a time when it looked as though the union would fall but men heard the voice of Abraham Lincoln, fought and conquered. The shackles of millions of slaves were struck off as a natural result of the war not as its main issue. We present to the world its grandest civilization and it is ours, in memory of our soldier dead, to defend that civilization.

This is not only a united people. It is a re-united people. Not long ago the country's sons heard the voice of oppression and destiny called them to the aid of the oppressed. Those who once wore the gray donned the blue, and there was no north, no south.

They marched beyond the sea and sent Spain and her oppressions back where she belongs. We have done a great deal for Cuba, but Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines have done more for us. We are a re-united people today and liberty is tied more tightly to the flag and to God than ever before.

Soldier Is Not Mercenary
Some people say the soldier is mercenary. It is his right to get as much property as he can if he gets it honestly. He went to war for a mere pittance. The American soldier is not mercenary. If his heart could be cut open there would be found, not the silver dollar, but the stars and stripes, enshrined there.

The sunny side of the soldier's life is brightened because this is a prosperous country. It has produced the grandest and finest men the sun ever shown on. Some people say trusts are king here. Don't believe it. In this country manhood is king and every man has been created free and equal. Being men, we are expected to do our duty to God and to our country.

Tribute To The Soldier
Every true American citizen would rather shake hands with any man who wears a G. A. R. button in the lapel of his coat than attend the coronation of Edward VII. Why? Because that little badge represents freedom, prosperity, patriotism—everything that he country values. Let us march out into the world with the stars and stripes nailed above the cross of Christ—the flag representing political liberty and the cross, the symbol of Christian liberty.

WALTER JONES.

Walter Jones, who will be remembered as the original "tramp" in "1402" impersonates a grotesque Tammany sub-way contractor in "The Chaperons" and turns up in the Paris Latin quarter in the first act, becoming entangled in the plot of the merry satire without rhyme or reason. When questioned for an excuse for his presence there, Jones drolly replies: "I came to study rapid transit because I have been told that Paris is the fastest city in the world." "And what were you doing in New York?" asks Harry Conner. "I had a contract to build a tunnel from Tammany hall to Dewey Arch," says Jones, "but someone moved the arch and I went broke."

ed with the utmost care by the well-known artists, P. Dodd Ackerman and Homer Emons. The first act represents an Austrian willow grove and flower garden, which in its mammoth willow trees and artificial blossoms, is most beautiful. The second act is a fine old German interior. The third act is a gorgeous reproduction of an Austrian Court ballroom.

Minstrels
The coming of Beach & Bower's minstrels, under canvas, on May 27, is heralded with pleasure. It's now the oldest minstrel company on the road under one continuous management and we are very fortunate in getting a performance from them. It will furnish more fun and entertainment than any show of its kind. This season is all new, original and original. The singing is as perfect as is heard in the very best opera companies. The specialties can not be beaten and are most decidedly laughable and intensely interesting as Beach & Bowers have called to their assistance an array of talent that places their company in the van of minstrelsy. The minstrel boys seem untiring in their efforts to please, and they arouse the spectators to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

INVITE CHURCHES TO LABOR MEETING

Public Labor Conference To Be Held at Assembly Hall Tuesday Evening, June 3.

Through the various pulpits all the churches of the city were yesterday invited to attend a general labor conference to be held by the Trades' union at Assembly hall, Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock. The invitation sent to the pastors was to the effect that for some months past there has been some effort made by the different churches and societies to bring about a more friendly feeling and better understanding between organized labor and the churches. To this end the organized workers have attended services at the different churches.

Churches Invited.
Now the organized workers intend to hold a meeting which they invite the churches to attend. Believing that the public in general does not understand the underlying principles and workings of organized labor and being desirous of a perfect understanding the labor unions will hold an open conference for the purpose of bringing about a more general knowledge of the labor movement.

Program Arranged.
The committee having charge of the conference is composed of J. C. Osborn, Fred Smith and Joseph Delaney. An interesting program has been arranged for the evening's exercises. The program will include several vocal numbers, an opening address by some prominent member of the union, addresses by Rev. Robert C. Denison, Rev. W. A. Goebel, Rev. James Church and J. L. Fisher, readings by Mrs. W. H. Phelps, M. H. Whitaker, Mrs. Gus. Baker, Alvin Pardee and Frank Hall, and will conclude with a drill by the Woman's Union Label League. The public is invited to the conference.

Simple Insomnia Has a Certain Cure
I do not hesitate to say that in such primary insomnia, however severe, osteopathy always effects a cure. Usually much relief comes with the first treatment.

"After being haunted with insomnia for months, I had exhausted all the usual treatments," says former Congressman Goodnight, of Kentucky. "I was prevailed upon to take an osteopathic treatment, and went home and slept at once—the first sound sleep I had enjoyed in months—slept like a child."

"Osteopathy is effective in restoring nerve-rest and mind-rest to the overworked business and professional man," says Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, "and it gives one the sleep of youth."

"I suffered constantly from dizziness, fever, and insomnia," says Prof. N. N. Riddell, the well-known lecturer in Chautauqua circles. "I was advised to take a strong opiate in order to secure sleep, but from wiser counsel visited an osteopath. He relieved the blood pressure from the brain in five minutes. I was never more surprised in my life. I went home and slept like a farm hand."

CONSIDER PLAN TO END STRIKE

Civic Federation to Formulate
Scheme to Settle Miners' Trouble.

JOHN MITCHELL IN CHICAGO

Says Outlook in East Is for a Hard
Fight—Believes National Convention
Will Be Called, as Only One More
Signature Is Necessary.

New York, May 26.—It was officially announced that a meeting of the Executive committee of the National Civic Federation will be called in this city within the next few days to consider the best plan of ending the strike of the anthracite coal miners, unless the strike is ended in the meantime without its intervention. Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, who is on the committee, is now in this city on other business, but probably will remain to attend the meeting.

A meeting of the Arbitration committee, which is a much smaller body, could be called only if both sides asked or consented to arbitration, and the operators have neither asked for nor consented to arbitration. The Executive committee can be called on any emergency. Coal carrying companies and independent operators and the United Mine Workers will be asked to send representatives to the meeting and a strong attempt will be made to settle the strike by proposing a plan which will necessitate no loss of prestige on either side.

MITCHELL SEES RYAN.

National President and Illinois Secretary Confer at Chicago.

Chicago, May 26.—President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers reached Chicago yesterday to learn the sentiment of the Illinois men toward the strike in the anthracite fields. He met Secretary W. D. Ryan, of the State organization and held a short conference with him. President W. R. Russell and several members of the Executive committee left the city, just missing the national President.

Mr. Mitchell insisted that his visit was purely personal, he having come to Chicago to meet his wife, who arrived in the afternoon from their home in Iowa.

He declined to discuss the possibility of a strike of the bituminous men in sympathy with the anthracite workers or even to admit that it would be considered.

"Undoubtedly," said Mr. Mitchell, "there will be a national convention called to discuss the advisability of calling out all the members of the national organization. I am compelled by our constitution to issue a call for a convention when five districts demand it. Four already—three in Pennsylvania and one in Michigan—have signed a request for a call. I have no doubt they will be able to obtain another signer, after which I will issue the call as promptly as possible."

Lightning Kills Peddlers.

Bourbon, Ind., May 26.—Two Syrian peddlers, who had been peddling their wares throughout the surrounding country for the last week, were found dead in the woods two miles southwest of this place. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that they met death by lightning, as the tree under which they were found was shattered. A severe electric storm passed over the city, followed by a heavy downpour of rain, and it was during this storm they are supposed to have been killed.

Life Sentence for a Boy.

Shenandoah, Ia., May 26.—A verdict of murder in the second degree, with life sentence, for Wesley Irwin, the third boy tried for the murder of Oscar Miller in a Wabash sandhouse last December, was returned. Edward Dennis also received a life sentence for the same crime, and Eugene Mason was acquitted.

Boy Burglar Confesses.

Oshkosh, Wis., May 26.—Frank Moon, aged 11 years, who has been spending money freely for theater tickets for some time, has been arrested and confessed to two burglaries.

WHAT CONGRESS MAY DO.

Forecast of Legislation in Both Houses at Washington.

Washington, May 26.—From present indications the Senate will devote another full week, if not a longer time, to consideration of the Philippine bill. The prediction is freely made that a vote will not be reached before the middle of the following week. Senator Burrows will be heard to-day in advocacy of the bill, and among others who are expected to speak during the week are Senators Patterson, Pettus, Bailey and Bacon. In opposition to the bill, and Senator Spooner in its support. When the set speeches are disposed of there will be an effort to secure two or three days for consideration of amendments, allowing speeches not exceeding ten or fifteen minutes on each of them. It is not expected that there will be any session of the Senate on Friday, as that is Memorial day and a holiday. The continued deferment of the time for taking a vote on the Philippine measure has caused considerable abatement in the preparation of the discussion of the Nicaragua Canal bill and the Cuban reciprocity bill, which will be taken up next in succession or jointly. The best sugar people predict a month's debate on the Nicaraguan bill, but this prediction is not in accord with the views of the advocates of the Nicaragua bill or its opponents in the Isthmian canal committee.

House Plans.

Under the special order adopted last week the bill to regulate immigration will have the right of way over all measures except appropriation bills, revenue bills and conference reports. Debate on this bill probably will be resumed on Tuesday, to-day being set aside for the consideration of measures coming from the committee on the District of Columbia, but should it appear that the immigration bill can be disposed of to-day Chairman Babcock of the District of Columbia committee may yield to the immigration bill, taking the day following for District of Columbia matters. After the immigration bill is acted upon the committee of rules will report a special order for the consideration of the anti-anarchy bill, or, as it is known, "a bill for the protection of the President of the United States and to prevent crime against government." This will be followed by the subsidiary coinage bill. It is anticipated by the leaders of the House that these measures will occupy the entire week, in which event the Pacific cable bill will not be reached until the first week in June. It in turn will be followed by the irrigation bill.

CENSUS STATISTICS.

Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, leads in the value of farm products, with $12,913,415. Then follow Chickasaw nation, Indian Territory, with $10,779,990; McLean county, Illinois, $10,686,045; St. Lawrence county, New York, $9,820,036; Dane county, Wisconsin, $9,303,989; and La Salle county, Illinois, $8,869,267.

Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, leads in the amount of gross income, with $9,210,815; Chickasaw nation, Indian Territory, comes next with $9,174,760; McLean county, Illinois, $8,831,515; Los Angeles county, California, $7,527,530; Champaign county, Illinois, $7,311,102; and La Salle county, Illinois, $7,201,557.

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected.

S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

EFFECT ON THE STATE

The loyal support tendered Senator Whitehead by his home county, is already being felt throughout the state. The LaFollette forces have talked long and loud about the Senator's unpopularity at home, and every effort has been made to discount him in the house of his friends. It has been claimed that he was simply a stalking horse for the party and that when the time was ripe, he would disappear from the political horizon.

This kind of talk has emanated from the Governor's followers, and his organs assisted by the democratic press have been very busy spreading the gossip. They have introduced State Secretary Froelich, Senator Deane, and Congressman Barney, as candidates to succeed Senator Whitehead and the antics of the combination will read like a fairy tale in the political history of the campaign.

This great amount of commotion was instigated by fear. Senator Whitehead has been recognized as a strong candidate, ever since he accepted the invitation, so generously extended by the conservative republicans of the state. He is neither a novice nor an unknown quantity. His work in the senate, where he was a recognized leader, brought him prominently before the people of the state. He is a man who bears acquaintance well, and his friends have never doubted his ability to win.

Aside from the personal victory, which is gratifying, the significance to the life and success of republicanism is of vastly greater importance. If governor LaFollette was a statesman and sound on questions of public policy, he would still be the czar and dictator. This is his long suit. These qualities may be endured in public men, who possess the ability of Thos. B. Reed, but when monopolized by men of one idea, they become obnoxious.

Egotism and personal ambition are sometimes elements of weakness, and when they are the principle stock-in-trade, with a man in public life, they soon become monotonous. The state of Wisconsin is unfortunate in having as its chief executive a man who is so largely absorbed in self, and whose "sublime" egotism prompts him to believe that he is wiser than his constituency.

The Republican party is more unfortunate in having honored this kind of a man with leadership. As a result, the party has suffered humiliation and is today rent with strife unparalleled in its history.

The most ardent supporters of the governor, do not believe that his re-nomination will result in harmony. They know, as does the governor himself, that harmony is impossible under dictation and people, who do not agree with the governor, know that in dealing with him, the mountain is always expected to come to Mo-hamet.

With Senator Whitehead in the gubernatorial chair, conditions will be changed. There will be no monarch on the throne or no monarchical features of government. The gate keeper, who protects the holy of holies, will not be permitted to assume the roll of an autocrat, and the air of the state capitol will be cheerful and wholesome.

Beyond these pleasant environments will be recognized a statesman who has no theories to exploit or hobbies to exercise.

Republicanism in its broadest significance, will be cultivated and party differences will receive so little encouragement, that harmony will follow as a natural result.

It is always difficult for a man to quarrel without an enemy, and the man who makes an enemy of Senator Whitehead, would find it difficult to live with his wife, if she was the best woman in the state.

The party as well as the people, of the state, are to be congratulated on the prospect of having a governor who will represent the office in fact as well as name. The Milwaukee Journal will be permitted to do business in the state under the new administration if the paper will promise to be good.

HARMONY IN THE COUNTY

There is every reason why the republicans of Rock County should be united. Local conditions were never more favorable and the cities and towns were never in more prosperous condition.

The second and third assembly districts are practically a unit on political sentiment and more than half the towns in the first district are in sympathy. The element in this district, not in accord with popular sentiment, because of their loyalty to governor LaFollette, will discover, as they give the matter thoughtful consideration, that it is better to sacrifice personal preference, where no principle is involved, than to be out of harmony with the great majority of republicans in the county.

It is seldom that honor comes to a county in the way of a candidate for governor. This peculiar honor has come to Rock county, unsought. A large element of the party voluntarily united in asking Senator Whitehead to consent to become a candidate. This unusual endorsement comes from every county in the state.

Rock had nothing to do with Senator Whitehead's candidacy. It represents the spontaneous voice of Wisconsin republicanism. The honor is forced upon the county and it should be recognized and appreciated by every republican voter as well as by all the citizens.

Aside from a few state employees, there isn't a man in the county, who is under obligation to Governor LaFollette. He has served his term of office, and has no cause for complaint.

It is conceded on every hand that Senator Whitehead possesses the ability to make an ideal governor. The republicans of the county to a man should be glad of an opportunity to honor him with loyal support. By so doing, the party will be a unit in the county, and harmony will prevail.

In the death of the English Ambassador, Lord Pauncefoot, occurs a loss that will be felt by both nations. For the past thirteen years he had represented his country, and his broad intelligence and marked ability as a statesman and diplomat was universally recognized. The American people appreciated his sense of fairness, and his influence in Washington was potent and helpful. His death will be sincerely mourned.

There were 684 votes cast by the Senator's supporters in the caucuses held last Friday night, against 407 by the opposition. It is safe to say that more than half of the latter number were democratic. The tactics that prevailed in Janesville are being pursued throughout the state. The governor has occasion to be proud of the work being done by his friends. In one of the city wards democrats were peddling tickets. The crowd is on record and there may be a hereafter.

Congressman Cooper will be nominated tomorrow without opposition. This compliment will be appreciated by the lake shore candidate, who has long felt that he was under peculiar obligations to Rock county. Mr. Cooper has made a good record in Congress, and is now at the head of one of the most important committees.

Senator Whitehead is still handling the primary election law, and his series of letters will continue. The provisions of the obnoxious measure are being thoroughly treated. A careful reading of the letters will satisfy any unprejudiced mind, that Wisconsin has no use for the erratic measure.

Congressman Dahle don't propose to be fooled by Jefferson county. He has held up the appointment of Past Master Burchard until his friend Governor Hoard delivers the goods. The Scandinavians have cause for a grievance against the governor; and they will not be slow to resent the insult felt so keenly by Mr. Dahle.

The St. Paul preacher who accused Bishop Ireland of being mixed up in a political deal with Senator Hanna, is liable to have a busy time explaining. The Bishop ignores the charge, but the Senator will hardly let him off so easy.

The LaFollette forces were evident ly disappointed in the union labor vote. They have not yet discovered the fact that the organization is non political, and that individual members do their own thinking.

Severe storms that are prevalent in all parts of the country are accounted for by scientists on the theory of volcanic disturbances.

NOT BIG ENOUGH.

Last year demonstrated to the satisfaction of most people that Governor LaFollette is not big enough man to be both governor and legislator at the same time, and as he is again aspiring to the same position, it would be a good idea in the interests of public and private peace to turn him and his selfish interest down, and nominate a ticket of republicans on a platform that would have met the approval of men like Rusk and Fairchild.—Lake Geneva Herald.

PRESS COMMENT.

Marquette Eagle: The governor decided on having the state convention at Madison, but that won't nominate him.

Racine Journal: The first congressional district is for John M. Whitehead and for the best interests of the Republican party.

Milton Telephone: The Telephone has been favored with one of the Hand-Books. We have labeled it "Uncle Ike's Book," and placed it in our library of half-breed faction.

Beloit Free Press: The LaFayette and Walworth republican county conventions were held yesterday and solid Cooper delegations to the Congressional convention were elected.

Appleton Post: The spectacle of a professional purist in politics, "muzzling interests" with the man whom he has often denounced as an arch-corruptionist shows pretty clearly the kind of a reformer that Mr. LaFollette is.

Herman Dahle may not be an ideal congressman, but he was good enough for Gov. LaFollette to pick up and support for two terms, and is certainly looks cold-blooded to trade him off now, as if he were a bale of merchandise.—Delevan Republican.

Hudson Star Times: Governor LaFollette had a perfect right to withdraw his support from Congressman Dahle if he wished. It is the dagger thrust he gave him "in the back, one dark night, that "God's patient poor" object to.

Mansfield Times: The Republican State Central Committee met at Madison Tuesday and decided to hold the Republican State convention at Madison on the 18th. His Lordship Governor LaFollette, ordered this change in the convention city, thinking that he could dictate to the delegates, at his own home to better advantage than at Milwaukee.

PHENOMENAL

SUCCESS OF THE OLDSMOBILE MACHINE DURING THE PAST SEASON.

Sold in All Portions of This Country as Well as in Europe.

The phenomenal success of the Oldsmobile during the past season has demonstrated beyond all question of doubt that it is the automobile for which the public has been anxiously waiting ever since the beginning of the industry. The Oldsmobile Works are making a machine that is ready to go any distance, starting at a moment's notice; the truth of this claim having been demonstrated by the enormous sales. It has gone into the hands of the inexperienced with the most satisfactory results, and was unquestionably the most popular motor carriage of the year, the demand far exceeding the capacity to build them.

The Oldsmobile will be found in every state in the Union, working in any climate, over all sorts of roads, and giving a good account of itself, even under the most unfavorable conditions. It is simple, durable and reliable, the result of sixteen years' practical experience in building gasoline motors, and of careful attention to detail in construction, realizing all of the many requirements necessary to produce a satisfactory automobile, when in the hands of inexperienced people.

The Oldsmobile is strictly a runabout, weighing but 800 pounds. It is made in but one style, and only one finish, each and every part being made to a standard. The range of speed is from three to twenty miles per hour, over city streets, boulevards or country roads; the light weight and mode of construction enabling the carriage to run smoothly over rough or heavy roads; that would be quite impassable for those of a heavier type. It is tested before shipping with a load on a 20 per cent grade, and as the grade of the average hill is only 10 or 12 per cent, the tests show the vehicle to have ample power for any section of the country.

The Oldsmobile has run under test forty miles on one gallon of common stove gasoline, but as a rule will require one gallon for twenty-five miles for the average road, the expense of running being about 1 cent per mile. Frank H. Blodgett, the local agent, would be pleased to show this wonderful machine to all who are interested.

HAIL STORM AND FIRES DO DAMAGE

Hail Breaks Windows and Damages Crops—Fires Burn Barns.

The hail storm Saturday night was one of the worst experienced in this section in years. For the space of half an hour it came down in sheets, and did considerable damage. Windows were broken, branches cut off from trees, plants cut in two, and birds killed. If it had been in August, the tobacco crop would not have been worth gathering. Growing stuff of all descriptions suffered by the downpour.

At George Wise's photograph gallery twenty-four panes of glass were broken out of his skylight. At Barlow's a number of panes of glass were cracked but none broken out, and in all parts of the city windows were broken. The greenhouses and hot beds about the city suffered considerably, but not as much as would be expected.

Big Hail Stones.
Hail stones from an inch and a half to two inches in circumference, were common, and a number were picked up that were an inch and a half in diameter.

Pedestrians, who were out about town when the storm started, say it was one of the fiercest that has prevailed in this section for a long time. It is hoped that a storm of this kind will not occur during the tobacco season.

Packed Ice Cream With Hail.

The old adage concerning the ill wind which blows no man good, proved true once again in Saturday night's storm. Al. Smith's refrigerator at his confectionary store on the bridge was empty, he had considerable ice cream on his hands to carry over and he needed ice and needed it badly. He was just wondering what to do when the storm broke.

At first he watched the downfall of rain and hail with the same impersonal interest shown by the common run of humanity to whom the well-being of oats, corn and tobacco are not vital questions, but as he saw the size of the chunks of ice which made the sidewalk white, the inspiration of genius came to him. No longer did he stand idly watching. He seized a large pail, rushed out of doors and in a trice had the pail filled with hail stones which were hastily transferred to the refrigerator. The operation was repeated several times until his ice cream was safely packed with mixed hail stones and salt, and his refrigerator filled with ice. Mr. Smith is inclined to favor hail stones of the large variety sent to town Saturday night, for packing ice cream as they do away with the labor of breaking up ice.

Peculiar Hail Stones.
People who were caught down town by the storm and who consequently made their way home as soon as its first fury was over, were amazed at the immense size and the peculiar shape of the hail stones which covered the walk in front of a certain saloon on East Milwaukee street. The ejaculations of "wonder" and "surprise" seemed to furnish plenty of amusement for a crowd of young men, who it is supposed had taken refuge from the storm in the saloon. Perhaps this amusement may have arisen from the fact that a few minutes before the peculiar hail phenomenon on the sidewalk attracted the attention of pedestrians, these young men had been indulging in a little physical exercise with an ice pick and a cake of ice.

Two Destructive Fires.
Two fires inside of nine hours was the record for yesterday. Both of the fires while not entailing any large loss were hot ones while they lasted.

Yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock a telephone message was sent to the West Side Fire station that there was a bad fire near the Fair Grounds. Box 35 was rung in on the "Kidder" and the boys turned out in short order.

When the department reached the Fair Grounds they found that the fire was at the Lane farm beyond the city limits and all turned back with the exception of the patrol wagon which kept on to the fire. When they reached the farm they found the fire burning fiercely and one barn was completely consumed. Two other buildings were burning fiercely and were beyond control with the limited means at hand. The department and the neighbors united in trying to save the house and a large tobacco shed to the east of the burning buildings and were successful.

The patrol boys worked like demons and succeeded in putting out the fire a number of times when it looked as if the big shed must go. The timely arrival of the patrol wagon with the extinguishers was all that saved the house and other buildings.

The buildings that were consumed were a cow barn, 30x70, built in 1898; a horse barn 30x40; a shed 20x30 and a corn crib, 24x32. There was about four tons of hay and five tons of corn in the burnt buildings.

Mr. Lane placed his loss at $1,500 with no insurance. The policies on this property lapsed some time ago and had not been renewed. Christ Prieu, the tenant on the farm had some insurance on the corn and hay.

Five Points Fire.
The second alarm came in at 12:35 at night from box 615 at the corner of Five Points and Center avenue. The bright light in the sky and the screeching of the round house and locomotive whistles caused the fire department to think that the Northwestern freight station or the round house was on fire. The department found that the fire was at the home of David B. Griffin, yardmaster for the Chicago & Northwestern at 153 Gold street. His horse barn and adjacent sheds were all ablaze and it was only after an hours hard work, during which time Chief Spencer called for 125 pounds pressure that the fire was subdued. When the fire was rung out all that was left was a small portion of the frame work of the barn. Mr. Griffin's valuable trotting mare, Silverette, was in the barn when the fire was discovered and was only rescued after her mane had been singed off and her front legs badly burned.

Mr. Griffin is of the opinion that the barn was either set afire or caught from a spark from a passing engine. He places his loss at $500, which is covered by a blanket insurance policy.

The fire boys are now on the lookout for the third alarm, which they say always comes.

KILLED BY A TRAIN

Magnolia Man Killed Near Evansville Saturday

Thad York, of Magnolia, an employee of the Evansville Creamery Co., was struck and killed by a Northwestern freight train, at a road crossing about a mile and a half this side of Evansville on Saturday noon. He was one of the drivers for the company and was returning home with a pair of horses and a delivery wagon when struck by the train.

The engine struck the horses squarely killing them both and threw York in front of the engine. He had his right leg cut off below the knee and his head badly crushed.

York was about forty-five years of age and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his death. He was a member of Magnolia camp, M. W. of A., and had insurance in the order.

Two boys were riding on the wagon with York Saturday when he was killed and saw the train, which was an engine and caboose, coming. They called to York to look out for the train and jumped off. It is thought that the rattle of the milk cans drowned out the sound of their voices and York did not hear them.

York's funeral was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon, from his home in the town of Magnolia.

A BIG RECEPTION FOR YOUNG MEN

Christian Endeavor Societies and Epworth Leagues To Entertain at Y. M. C. A. Building.

Next Friday evening, May 30th there is to be a mammoth reception at the Y. M. C. A. building for the young men of the city. The reception is to be given by the Christian Union of Young People's societies of Christian Endeavor and Epworth League and is intended as a practical evidence of the personal interest taken by the churches in the young men.

Through the factories and business places an effort has been made to reach every young man in the city and to place in his hands a personal invitation to the reception. About six hundred are expected to respond and the entire Y. M. C. A. building will be devoted to accommodating the guests and there will be some different form of entertainment in each room. A special reception committee will be in each room to welcome the guests and there will be five booths at which young ladies will serve light refreshments.

Committee of Arrangements.

Arrangements for the reception are in the hands of a general committee consisting of a representative from the Y. M. C. A. and each of the five young people's societies in the union.

Mrs. W. F. McCaughey is chairman of this general committee and its other members are all chairmen of sub-committees as follows: Dr. F. T. Richards, invitations; Miss Myrtle Dewey, decorations; Miss Alice Fenton, refreshments; J. C. Kline, entertainment; Miss Evelyn Packer, program; Miss Nellie Smiley, reception.

Society Members To Be Present.

The chairman of each sub-committee has appointed as its other members one or two young people from each society associated in giving the reception. The membership of the societies is expected to be present to assist in entertaining the guests of next Friday evening. The evening of Memorial day was chosen as the time for the reception because it was thought that it would be more generally convenient for the young men on account of the day being a holiday.

MRS. AUGUSTA DAVIS DEAD

Passed Away Saturday Night At The Home Of Her Son

Mrs. Augusta J. Davis for over sixty years an esteemed resident of this city passed away peacefully Saturday evening at 6 o'clock. Her death occurred at the home of her son, George J. Davis, 153 South Main street, and was the result of an aggravated form of stomach trouble.

Mrs. Davis had been an invalid for several years but had only been confined to her bed for the past ten days.

Deceased was in the seventy-fourth year of her life, having been born in Milton Falls, Vt., Sept. 25, 1826. In 1842 her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silas B. Sibley moved to this city and located near the Burr Robbins place. This city has been Mrs. Davis' home continuously ever since although she was frequently absent on extended visits with her children.

She was united in marriage, July 29, 1846, with Jerome B. Davis, whose death occurred Jan. 16, 1860, leaving her the widowed mother of two children. Mrs. Davis was widely known and highly respected in this city where there are many who cherished and loved her as a friend.

H. A. WEBER

Death came very suddenly this morning at 6:30 o'clock to H. A. Weber, a well-known resident of this city, at the home of his brother, Peter Weber, 8 Bennett street. Deceased had been in poor health for some time but was around town as usual yesterday. This morning he arose at 6 o'clock but felt so poorly that he returned to bed where he was seized with terrible cramps. A doctor was hastily summoned, but arrived too late to render any assistance, death having come within ten minutes after Mr. Weber returned to bed.

Deceased was thirty-nine years of age and was a laboring man, having been at one time watchman in F. M. Marzluff & Co's shoe factory. Last fall he moved to Marshfield, Wis., going from there to Medford. He returned to this city with his family only last Friday, intending to remain here. A wife and two daughters are left to mourn his loss.

acter. The main argument used in behalf of both bills was the necessity of destroying the caucus and convention system as the source of political uncleanness, but how any political chicanery could have resulted from the silence of the bill with respect to making a party platform, was not shown. Had the legislature assumed that the caucus and convention system was characterized by trickery and fraud at every step, and that the candidates brought forward were all of inferior character, in short, that every charge made against the caucus and convention system, by the friends of the bills, was well-founded, nothing appeared to make it clear to the legislature that there was any relation of cause and effect between such evil conditions and the making of the party platform, or that in the bills, or either of them, such certainty of relief was assured that the state was justified in designating the agents which should declare the party platform.

Both bills were an invasion of those rights which the people reserved to themselves when they ordained constitutions. Both bills showed the strange inconsistencies of the advocates of this legislation. They first sought to bewitch the legislators by their plausible talk about restoring lost political rights to the people, keeping all political power in the hands of the people, the exercise by the voters of their sovereign right of choice in making nominations for office by direct vote, the honorable place of political parties in our plan of government; and then they deliberately undermined the hold of the party upon its committees, took away from its members, the means of supervising the party deliberations, and instituted an enforced representation to declare the party policies. No excuse therefore was given, except as inferred by a student of the bills, that when caucuses and conventions were done away with, there would be no party spirit left to move parties to hold any meetings. The bills anticipated the situation of a party, as it would be when party meetings were done away with, and provided a committee system of solid construction which, after a little, would become self-perpetuating—a close corporation. If so important a matter as making its platform can be taken away from a party by the force of a statute, I scarcely know what other party function cannot be destroyed. The state has the same right to interfere with a party in the declarations of its principles and to designate the particular agents which shall frame its platform, that it has to interfere with the workings of an ecclesiastical society and dictate which of its officers or agents shall formulate its creedal declarations. I believe the provision to have been wholly impracticable and unwarranted.

The exceptions of town and village officers from the operations of the Substitute Bill were practically the same as in the Stevens Bill.

The tenacity with which the three-fold character of the Stevens Bill was adhered to in the Substitute Bill minimizes the effect of any concessions made in the Substitute Bill, with respect to any particular features of any one of the three main propositions contained in the bill.

Mirth is an almost infallible sign of good health. A sick woman may force a smile or at times be moved to laughter. But when a woman is bubbling over with mirth and merriment she is surely a well woman.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength. It establishes regularity and so does away with monthly misery. It dries debilitating drains and so cures the cause of much womanly weakness. It heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures the bearing-down pains, which are such a source of suffering to sick women.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for female weakness," writes Mrs. Susannah Permenter, of Pauls Store, Shelby Co., Texas. "I was troubled with bearing-down pains in my back and hips for six years, and I wrote to Doctor Pierce for advice. I tried his Favorite Prescription and six bottles cured me. I feel like a new person and I thank Dr. Pierce for my health. Life is a burden to any one without health. I have told a great many of my friends about the great medicine I took."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is nothing "just as good."
